Primal Volleyball Club

Financial Obligations, Refunds & Administrative Penalties Policy

This policy outlines the financial obligations of participants and the circumstances under which refunds may be considered.

Financial Commitment

Acceptance of a roster position with Primal Volleyball Club constitutes a commitment to participate for the duration of the season and fulfill all associated financial obligations.

Families are expected to pay club fees in full or through the club's approved two-installment payment option. Payment deadlines will be established and communicated annually by the club. In most cases, payments will be due upon acceptance of a roster position and again in mid-January.

Athletes may not participate in club activities if their account is not in good standing, unless alternative arrangements have been approved by the club.

Refunds

Primal Volleyball Club does not provide refunds once a roster position has been accepted.

By accepting a position with the club, families acknowledge that Primal Volleyball Club immediately commits resources toward facility rentals, coaching honorariums, tournament registrations, equipment, apparel, administration, and other operational expenses.

Refund requests will only be considered in exceptional circumstances and must be submitted in writing to club leadership. Approval of any refund request is at the sole discretion of Primal Volleyball Club.

Administrative Penalties

Primal Volleyball Club reserves the right to recover costs resulting from damage to facilities, hotels, equipment, tournament fines, or other expenses incurred as a result of misconduct or policy violations.

Financial responsibility may be assigned to the athlete, parent/guardian, coach, or participant responsible for the expense.

Final Authority

Primal Volleyball Club reserves the right to make final decisions regarding payment arrangements, outstanding balances, refund requests, and administrative penalties.

Participation with Primal Volleyball Club constitutes acknowledgement and acceptance of this policy.
